High Quality Manufacturing with Environmental Care at AiDi Corporation

San Francisco, CA, July 30, 2007 – AiDi Corporation has received ISO 9001:2000 quality certification and ISO 14001:2004 environmental management certification. The International Standards Organization (ISO) certifications demonstrate AiDi's conformity with widely recognized management benchmarks for global businesses.

AiDi's leadership in high quality production with exacting manufacturing controls combined with a culture of continuous improvement translates into increasing customer satisfaction. As a good global citizen, activities conducted by AiDi manufacturing facilities are now certified to have minimal environmental impact.

“As a global company, AiDi has the responsibility to ensure our customers are satisfied and take care of the environment as we build the innovative products for optical networks,” says Kenzo Ishida, President and CEO of AiDi Corporation.

To accomplish the ISO certifications, AiDi is unique in taking control of the supply chain and manufacturing processes from selection of raw materials through to delivery of the final product. As a result, AiDi is able to provide its customers with enhanced confidence in the product integrity along with rapid product development cycles.
